DIDSBURY, ALBERTA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 22nd, 1912.

No. 21

EVERYBODY SURPRISED AT THE WONDERFUL VALUES OFFERED AT THE HURRY-UP SALE. Not a person disappointed. Not a sale made but what has made another friend and "Booster" for the sale. Not an article sold for anywhere near its actual value. Never before such a complete surrender of values. Never before could you buy so much for so little money.

We are doing a wonderful business because we are giving wonderful values and because the public know they can depend upon those who have the sale in charge. Everyone is so agreeably surprised at the remarkable values that they buy liberally and they go home and tell their friends and neighbors of their great bargains, and so the good news has spread.

If you call and see the excellent Bargains of High Grade Merchandise which we are now offering, you'll so convince yourself that it will Pay You Well to buy during this Hurry-Up Sale.

OVERSEAS CLUB NOTICE

All members of the Overseas Club are requested to meet at the School-house, Didsbury, at 1 o'clock, sharp, on Friday, May, 24th, to take part in the parade. By order, Committee.

AROUND THE TOWN

J. Teale of Nanton has accepted a position at the Alexandra hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crawford returned from Calgary on Saturday.

Mr. Criss Noehren of Edmonton paid Didsbury a business visit on Monday.

Mrs. T. W. Cuncannon and Mrs. Reid of Westcott are visitors at Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith of Sarnia, Ont., are visiting with their brother Walter west of town.

Geo. Boetger of Hanover, Ont., is visiting Mr. John Berscht, town, and Mr. John Berscht, Westcott.

Mrs. J. Christner and father of Calgary are spending a few weeks holidays on the Christner farm west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Geddes have returned after spending four weeks in the Okanagan valley, the coast and other points.

The new town fire bell was put up on Monday. It is much better than the old one, having a better tone and being much easier to ring.

Miss Etta Reitzel was the lucky winner of a fine piano at the recent contest which was carried on by the Calgary News-Telegram.

There will be German services in the Evangelical church next Sunday beginning at 10.30. All German speaking people are cordially invited to attend.

W. Poole of Winburne, Alta., an old-time friend of the editor's whom he had not seen for seventeen years, paid him a welcome visit on Friday last.

The next thimble tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Louis Wrigglesworth, Lacknerville on Wednesday, May 29th. All ladies are invited to attend.

The subject at the Baptist church on Sunday morning next will be, D. V., "Higher Things." In the evening the pastor hopes to speak on "Didsbury's Highways and Byways to Ruin." All heartily invited.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cowie and grandson, mother and father of Mrs. W. H. McFarlane of Elkton, arrived in Didsbury from Huntley, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, on Wednesday last. Welcome to the new land.

Considerable excitement was caused in the north end on Tuesday when the deaf and dumb son of the C. P. R. section foreman in some way got hold of a Winchester rifle and was firing it out of the windows of their residence rather carelessly. He pointed the gun at both Mr. W. Wrigglesworth of the North End Feed Barn and the constable but luckily the charges were exhausted. It seems he was left all alone in the house and the constable had to go in and take the gun away from him. It is hoped that the parents will look after him a little closer before he does himself or anyone else an injury.

HAVE YOU A SKIN RASH?

Zam-Buk Will End It.

For skin rashes, eruptions, eczema, etc., either in adults or children, there is nothing known to science which equals Zam-Buk in the quickness and certainty of its curative power. Mr. Raymond Webber, of Altonburg, Ont., writes: "I have tried Zam-Buk for many ailments, and every time have found it successful. Some time ago I had a bad rash all over my body. I tried home-made salves, herb salves, and various home-made preparations, and these proved of no use, but when I tried Zam-Buk I was cured in a quarter of the time that I had been experimenting in vain with other preparations."

"On another occasion I had one of my fingers crushed, and in that case also Zam-Buk was the only remedy I used. It healed the wound splendidly."

"My boy had boils and once again Zam-Buk brought about a complete cure. We have also used it as a household balm, for the injuries and skin diseases which are common to every person, and can say that in our experience there is nothing to equal Zam-Buk."

Zam-Buk owes its unique healing power to certain herbal extracts it contains. Unlike most ointments it contains no poisonous coloring matter, no animal fat, but is purely herbal. For eczema, piles, blood poison, abscesses, ulcers, cuts, burns and all skin injuries and diseases it is without equal and should be in every home. 50c box, all druggists and stores. Use also Zam-Buk Soap, 25c tablet.

What the Paris Police Are Paid.

The Paris police who risked their lives in trying to arrest the members of the automobile bandit band are not overpaid.

The chief inspector, Colmar, receives $840 a year and has reached the highest rate in the service. Sergt. Fleury has $600 a year. After him comes Inspector Rohr, who arrested Carony, for which day's work he got $1.50.

Inspector Leroy has $1.34 a day and Inspector Sevetre and Huet, who after watching for seven consecutive nights, arrested Raymond la Sciesce, do not receive quite $1.25 a day.

Inspector Naessens, who arrested one of the gang, Paul Doebel, gets the same amount.

It is true that pensions are paid after a certain length of service, but it is not surprising in view of the scale of the pay that good men in the Paris detective service should be attracted by private work.

A lady recently stopped at an east-end open-air butcher's stall and purchased a joint at threepence a pound. She returned shortly after and complained that it was saturated with naphtha from one of the butcher's lamps.

"Swelp me!" remarked the butcher. "You gets don't want much — not 'arf! You've got a wing rib off a bullock what was bred by King George himself for threepence a pound, and now you ain't satisfied! You're askin' too much, mum. If you want your Sunday's joint flavored with heau-de-Cologne, you'll have to spring another 'a'penny!"

WOMAN SICK FOR YEARS

Wants Other Women to Know How She was Finally Restored to Health.

Hammond, Ont. — "I am passing through the Change of Life and for two years had hot flushes very bad, headaches, soreness in the back of head, was constipated, and had weak, nervous feelings. The doctor who attended me for a number of years did not help me, but I have been entirely relieved of the above symptoms by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills, and give you permission to publish my testimonial." — Mrs. LOUIS BRAUCAGE, Sr., Hammond, Ont., Canada.

New Brunswick, Canada. — "I can highly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any suffering woman. I have taken it for female weakness and painful menstruation and it cured me." — Mrs. DEVERE BARBOUR, Harvey Bank, New Brunswick, Canada.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Umbrellas and Parasols.

Fashions change in umbrellas as well as in clothes. We find on visiting the London Museum that George IV, used to carry a green silk umbrella fringed with gold, and about twice as large as the umbrella of today. Parasols, too, have diminished in size since they first came into use. Henri Estienne, writing in 1578, speaks of a parasol as capable generally of sheltering four persons from the sun. And when they diminished in circumference, the material remained of the heaviest. Red velvet parasols, with heavy gold fringes, were carried by ladies of fashion in the days of Louis XIV. At that time it was possible, when crossing a bridge in Paris, to hire a parasol at one end and deposit it at the other, the charge for the accommodation being a sou.—London Chronicle.

That Was "Willie."

The late Bishop William N. MeVicker, of Rhode Island, harbored a large soul in a body to match. He was a bachelor, whose sister kept house for him.

On one occasion he telephoned to his tailor that he wished to have a pair of trousers pressed, and the tailor sent a boy to his residence to get them.

The Bishop's sister admitted the messenger and called upstairs: "Willie, the boy has come for your trousers!"

When her brother appeared the youth's astonished gaze traversed the prelate's impressive "corporosity," then he murmured:

"Gee! Is that Willie?"

AN INVITATION TO SICKNESS

Thin, Watery Blood Leads to a Breakdown in Health.

Thin, impure blood is an invitation to sickness. The blood is at work day and night to maintain the health and any lack of strength or purity in the blood is a weakness in the defense against disease. Anaemia is the doctor's name for lack of blood—watery blood. There may be an actual loss in the quantity of blood, or one or more of its constituents may be lacking. The surest symptom of anaemia is pallor. The trouble is particularly common among young girls between the ages of fourteen and eighteen, but is also found in women of all ages, and quite frequently attacks men. It is nearly always present and prevents recovery after grippé, fevers, malaria, and operations, and for this reason a tonic medicine is required in all these cases to enrich the blood, build up the nerves and restore health and strength. And there is no other tonic as good as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as has been proved in thousands and thousands of cases, among them that of Miss Annie Turner, Marie Joseph Post Office, N. S., who says: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been of inestimable benefit to me. I was so badly run down that I could hardly go about, was not able to help in the work about the house. As my health grew worse the trouble brought on some species of fit, and when these attacks would come on I would sometimes remain unconscious for half an hour. After many other medicines had failed to help me, my brother got me a supply of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I began taking these. In the course of a few weeks I felt much better, and after taking the Pills for a time longer I was again in the full enjoyment of good health. I feel that I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly and I recommend them to all weak girls."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Speaking Conscientiously.

Senator La Follette, during his recent visit to Philadelphia, said to a reporter apropos of a flagrant piece of hypocrisy:

"Why, the man's as bad as a Newport groom I heard of the other day. 'This groom stood beside his master while a veterinarian examined a costly cob. The veterinarian at the end of his examination pronounced the cob incurable and took leave. Then the master, sighing heavily, turned to the groom, and said:

"Well, James, what am I to do with the poor beast, now?"

"Conscientiously speakin', sir, the groom replied, 'I think you'd better part with him now to another gentleman, sir.'"

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

"When one hears of a drama without words," says a letter from St. Petersburg, "the mind naturally turns to the motion picture; but if the term is used in connection with the enterprise of H. Mardschanow the inference is wrong." "The theatre audiences have grown weary of dialogue," says Mardschanow, "and plays in which action, music and scenery can take its place must become popular." In order to demonstrate this theory the dramatic reformer has opened a playhouse for the production of wordless dramas in Moscow, where the first, entitled "Tears," will be produced this month. "The work is of a higher order than the pantomimes of former days," says the writer, "and although the actors may know no language except their own, the plays which they produce can readily be understood by anyone."

Powerful Plea.

A man in North Carolina who was saved from conviction for horse stealing by the powerful plea of his lawyer, after his acquittal by the jury, was asked by his lawyer:

According to the report of the Council meeting held on Monday night there is a deficiency in the cost of the electric light plant instead of a surplus as reported by the electric light expert some time ago. Early in April the Finance Committee was appointed by the Council to report on the electric light construction account, but so far no report has been made to the public and they do not know what has caused the deficiency. The Council have a duty to the taxpayers to perform in informing them why this deficiency exists, and by taking the public into their confidence could save themselves a lot of unnecessary criticism

Made-in-Canada Train

An interesting event is scheduled to take place in Didsbury next month, June 13th, when a "Made-in-Canada" train will stop here for three or four hours to allow the residents of this district to see what Canada is doing along manufacturing lines.

Reporting the announcement of the Canadian Home Market Association the Toronto Daily Star says:

Industrial enterprise in Canada will enter upon a new era in its history on May 15th, when the first "Made-in-Canada" exhibition train will leave Toronto on a tour from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean. Mr. H. D. Scully, secretary of the Canadian Home Market Association, who is in charge of the train, will accompany it as manager.

This moving object lesson will show the people of the west in a graphic manner what the development of manufacturing in the west will mean to them. It will also serve to demonstrate the fact that the quality of Canadian-made goods is equal to anything that can be imported, value for value. The train will consist of a number of standard baggage cars, the interior of which will be arranged so as to permit the display of the products as attractively and compactly as possible. Firms making exhibits will have three wall spaces to display photographs of their works, posters or other advertising hangers. The train will be electric lighted throughout.

At a meeting held in Hamilton, the committee of the Canadian Home Market Association definitely decided upon the itinerary. As a result of a circular letter sent out to the manufacturers of Canada signed by Mr. T. A. Russell, chairman; George E. Drummond of Montreal, vice-chairman, and H. D. Scully, secretary of the Home Market Association over eight cars have been taken up by exhibitors. The train will include in all twelve cars, ten being occupied by the exhibits of the different Canadian factories and the remaining two by the staff accompanying the train.

The train will leave Toronto on May 18th. Cars will be left here from May 4th to 15th to allow exhibitors to assemble their goods.

They will then proceed to Montreal and Ottawa, and thence to Port Arthur and Fort William, which they will reach on May 21. After that the itinerary will cover some 100 towns in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, following the lines of the Canadian Pacific railway. It is the purpose of the association to run over the other lines in ensuing years.

One particular feature of the scheme is the eagerness with which the Winnipeg manufacturers are receiving it. One especial Winnipeg car had been arranged for, but so many applications have been made for space that they are now asking for a second car. Eastern manufacturers regard this western zeal as a strong indication of the progress of manufacturing in the middle west, and in some cases the enthusiasm of the westerners has put to shame the more tardy attitude of the established eastern houses.

The exhibition train will include a representative showing of such made-in-Canada goods as all classes of textiles, stoves, pianos, automobiles, beds, springs, mattresses, engines, packing house products, confectionery, rubber goods, salt, kodaks, farm implements, paints and oils, drugs, cement, furniture, jewelry and watches, silver plate and all kinds of sheet metal products.

The arrangement of the cars will be as follows:

A model house car, fully furnished, and showing the products of numerous Canadian factories.

Composite exhibits, showing the process of manufacture of raw steel into its many finer forms.

In addition to the actual exhibits lectures will be given on board by Mr. T. H. Race, of Mitchell, Ont., who has been Canada's representative at the world's fairs held in Australia, New Zealand, Britain and Belgium. He will give, as it were, word pictures of industrial and agricultural life the world over.

It would surprise you to know of the great good the "Made-in-Canada" train has done by Chamberlain's Tablets. Darius Downey, of Newberg Junction, N. B., writes, "My wife has been using Chamberlain's Tablets and finds them very effectual and doing her lots of good." If you have any trouble with your stomach or bowels give them a trial. For sale by all dealers.

A celebrated parson preached a rather long sermon from the text "Thou art weighed and found wanting." After the congregation had listened about an hour, some began to get weary and went out; others soon followed, greatly to the annoyance of the minister. Another person was about to retire when the minister stopped his sermon and said: "That's right, gentlemen; as fast as you are weighed, pass out."

Poor appetite is a sure sign of impaired digestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will strengthen your digestion and improve your appetite. Thousands have been benefited by taking these tablets. Sold by all dealers.

"Please, mum," began the aged hero in appealing tones, as he stood at the kitchen door on wash day, "I've lost my leg."

"Well, I ain't got it," snapped the woman, slamming the door.

There never was a time when people appreciated the real merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy more than now. This is shown by the increase in sales and voluntary testimonials from persons who have been cured by it. If you or your children are troubled with a cough or cold give it a trial and become acquainted with its good qualities. For sale by all dealers.

DIZZINESS

Mrs. J. B. Renaud of Goldrich street, Sturgeon Falls, Ont., says:

"I have suffered for months with a very weak stomach. I had dizzy spells and at times could not retain any food at all. I tried any number of remedies and prescriptions but none seemed to relieve me until I tried Miona Tablets. I used one box only and they have completely cured me of my troubles. I am pleased to recommend Miona as I know it to be a remedy of merit."

Miona is sold by druggists everywhere at 50c a box, and is guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, indigestion, sick headache, nausea, heartburn, sour stomach, belching of gas, dizziness, heavy stomach and car sickness, vomiting of pregnancy and the after effects of over eating or drinking—or money back. Postpaid from the R. T. Booth Co., Limited, Fort Erie, Ont. Sold and guaranteed by H. W. Chambers.

It was Edwin Jessop, and Harry, glancing at Lady Anne's face, saw that she frowned and grew paler at sight of him.

"Please sit down here, Mr. Worth," she said. "I want you to tell me the exact truth about an unlucky protégé of mine, the man whom they call Sammy."

"I will tell you anything you wish to know, Lady Anne."

"I daresay you have seen him hanging about the farm," she went on, staring straight before her as she spoke. "A red-haired, hump-backed creature, with a disagreeable expression caused by a squint. The night you arrived he was roughly asking me for more money in a wood when you intervened, and I told you there was no harm in him."

"I remember perfectly," Harry said. "But I think you were wrong."

"What do you mean?" she asked, turning a startled face upon him.

"I have reason to suppose the man is at least a thief."

"Oh, I don't think so!" she returned with an air of relief. "He might be a rascal, or a scoundrel, or even a pence, if he had a chance. But he does not really understand the value of money. The reason I am troubling you about him is that Farmer Anning tells me he had not been near the place for two days or two nights and that the last time he caught sight of him was the day before yesterday, when you walked to Lyllyngton Court, and Sammy followed you. I don't know why, but he has a habit of following strangers."

"That accounts for his presence in the grounds," exclaimed Harry. "I was looking at the house late in the afternoon when a traveler I had accidentally met entered into conversation with me. Suddenly, he declared we were being followed; and, darting among the trees, he saw Sammy, whom he described to me."

"What happened then?" she asked anxiously.

"Nothing, as far as I knew at the time. I took a dislike against this traveler and avoided him. But the next day, when I visited Lyllyngton fish ponds the fellow drove up in a trap from the village, where he had passed the night, and insisted upon getting out and telling me of an adventure he had had with this same Sammy."

"Go on."

"The man declared that at the inn at Lyllyngton where he stopped, he discovered a red-headed, squinting fellow, who seemed half-witted, hidden behind some dresses in a cupboard of the bedroom in which he was to sleep."

"It is impossible!"

"It would sound so. But he went on to say that he looked the fellow in and then shot a bullet through the cupboard door."

A little cry broke from Lady Anne.

Toronto Man Cured
of Intolerable ItchMr. J. E.
Hooper,
Toronto.

By Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment

"I just want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Four or five years ago I was in Port Arthur, and I had an attack of the itch. It certainly was an intolerable nuisance. The itching was principally at night before I went to bed. The thighs were especially affected."

"I went to two doctors about it, and tried more than one remedy. I was beginning to think the complaint was incurable, when I was told by a friend that I should try Cuticura. He told me to take a hot bath, use Cuticura Soap, and then apply Cuticura Ointment. I took his advice, and, sure enough, the itch vanished. I had probably been troubled with the itch for two or three months before I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and they completely cured me of that intolerable nuisance. After one warm bath with Cuticura Soap and use of the Cuticura Ointment I was never troubled with the itching again. Anything in this testimonial I would be prepared to swear to in a court of law." (Signed) J. E. Hooper, 268 Parliament Street, Toronto, Jan. 10, 1911.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the specific, simplest and most economical treatment for skin and scalp disorders. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. A liberal sample of each, with 32-page book, sent free to any address, by the Cuticura Remedies Co., 62 Columbus Ave., Boston, U.S.A.

Harry, watching her, saw a look of terror flash into her eyes.

"Pray, don't be distressed," he quickly said. "Sammy was not killed."

"Was he hurt?" she asked faintly.

"Not too much hurt to cut the lock clean out and escape while the traveler went down to summon the landlord."

"Then he was not injured?"

"He must have been struck, for the man told me the dresses in the cupboard were stained with blood, although he declared he shot at a level above the thief's head, to frighten him."

"Cruel! Brutal!" she murmured.

"And what was the end? Did he get safely away?"

"So the fellow told me. It was he who drove on here afterwards in your absence, and saw your French maid. He told me he was going to visit Loders Abbey. I said the place was not shown to visitors. But he laughed in an offensive way, and said he meant to get in."

"Did he tell you his name?"

"No. I had as little converse with him as possible, as I took a great prejudice against him."

"You are sure he saw no more of that poor idiot creature?"

"He certainly had not when he parted from me."

"What was the traveler like?"

"About thirty. Dressed very smartly, almost too smartly, and wearing a singular pin in the form of a note of interrogation in diamonds in his tie. I suppose he was good-looking. But to me he looked common. He asked constant questions. He was clean shaven and very dark; and, by the way, the lodgekeeper at Lyllyngton imagined that he was my brother. I did not take it as a compliment."

"Then he is like you?"

"I suppose so. But I hope not."

She turned and looked at him steadily for a moment. There was no coquetry in her regard, only thoughtful attention.

"Who could the man have been?"

"There was something about his manner and movements which suggested to me a detective," Harry replied.

She turned on him swiftly, anger and haughtiness in her face.

"How can you even suggest such a thing, to me of all people?" she asked, with those lightning flashes in her blue eyes of which Lisette had spoken.

"Years ago, my guardians were the unhappy parents of a criminal. For months they and I had our footsteps dogged by the police and by professional and amateur detectives and ghoul-like bands of excursionists. Do you want to remind me of all that horrible time that you insult me by imagining that visitors here must necessarily be detectives?"

She had risen as she spoke and stood before him, quivering in every limb, a tall, stately figure, with slender hands clasped, and a face as white as her dress. Harry rose also, and answered her in a voice that vibrated with feeling.

"Forgive me, Lady Anne," he said. "If I have hurt you by any clumsy speech, I would rather cut my tongue out than annoy you. And there is nothing you could tell me to do for you which I would not gladly undertake. Won't you believe me?"

Her face softened. She bent her head gently, but without smiling.

"Americans are always chivalrous to women," she said. "I am troubled and nervous today. I hardly know what I am saying. That poor creature may be hidden somewhere, dangerously wounded."

She suddenly put her hands to her face and turned sharply away, making a little gesture of the head as though to dismiss him.

He longed to comfort her, but could only steal away and leave her, as always, alone, although with every nerve in his body he desired to soothe and to serve her.

At the lodge gates little Edwin Jessop, recognizing him, ran out to greet him.

The young man lifted him high in his arms and caressed him affectionately, promising to bring him a "nice new fox from London."

Before the gates closed upon him, and while he was still talking to the child, he looked back toward the house.

Under the archway cut in the yew hedge, he saw Lady Anne standing, watching him with a set look, which he took for anger, in her eyes.

MOTHERS PLEASED WITH BABY'S OWN TABLETS

A mother who has once used Baby's Own Tablets for her little one never fails to show her pleasure at the result. She at once realizes that they are the ideal medicine for baby—being absolutely safe and free from injurious drugs and at the same time a sure cure for all the little ills from which babies suffer. Mrs. P. Theriault, Pacquetville, N. B., writes: "Please send me another box of Baby's Own Tablets. I was extremely pleased with the last. My baby was greatly troubled with constipation and vomiting, but the Tablets quickly cured her." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

It is a Liver Pill—Many of the ailments that man has to contend with have their origin in a disordered liver, which is a delicate organ, peculiarly susceptible to the disturbances that come from irregular habits or lack of care in eating and drinking. This accounts for the great many liver regulators now pressed on the attention of sufferers. Of these there is none superior to Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. Their operation though gentle is effective, and the most delicate can use them.

Chinese Views of Millinery.

Speaking to a Chinese gentleman the other day an Englishman asked him if the Chinese ladies will emulate the men and go in for western headgear? In reply he beamed a smile most childlike and bland.

"Dressed for something more definite, he remarked: 'Did you not know that it is a well known fact among the Chinese that the reason so many European husbands look harassed and careworn and the further reason why so many of your young men refrain from marriage is this very question of millinery? Ladies' hats cost so much that they spell ruin and so we Chinese have told our women folk that we absolutely forbid them to follow western fashions in this regard, whatever they may do in other directions.'—Pekin News.

W. C. T. U. Surprise Party

A very pleasant little gathering of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. W. Mowers on Thursday last.

The occasion was a social cup of tea in the form of a surprise previous to Mrs. Mowers' departure to her new home in the vicinity of Alsask.

Despite the inclement weather about twenty ladies were present, and after a social half hour an address was read and a "handkerchief" shower tendered which slightly betokened the degree of friendship existing between the members of the W. C. T. U. and their retiring vice president.

Books Worth Reading

Twenty volumes of new books have been added to the Public Library. The titles of these books are "The Great Events by Famous Historians." These books are a comprehensive and readable account of the world's history, emphasizing the more important events, and presenting these as complete narratives in the master words of the most eminent historians, and they also contain some splendid plates illustrating the different events. Altogether these books are a splendid addition to the already large number of good books in the library.

Westcott

This week will finish seeding in this district and most people have their potatoes in.

A. M. Taylor has returned from High River and will stay at Westcott again for the summer.

John Bellamy sold a span of mares the other day which brought him $500. Mr. Geo. Boettger from Hanover, Ont., visited Westcott on his way to his brother at Mayton.

O. Kay Strain came home with the threshing outfit on Thursday and on Friday hitched onto the plows and after making a round or so the engine found a soft bed in the mud and so far O. Kay has not been able to coax him out.

Contractor Umbach is getting to be

C. H. Rinehart and S. R. Singer have delivered the 200 steers they were feeding this winter and report having done well on them.

Dan Russell snared a pike the other day measuring 38 inches in length and weighing about 12 pounds.

People coming through Westcott from distant places say the crops are a great deal more advanced here than anywhere else.

Don't forget Didsbury sports day on the 24th. All turn out and help to swell the crowd.

A meeting of the Westcott United Farmers' Union will be held at the Westcott school house on the last Friday in May, at 8 p. m., to confer with a committee from the Didsbury branch in respect to purchasing supplies for the season.

Fixing Up Park

At last a start has been made to fix up the piece of C. P. R. land opposite the postoffice for a town park and even the little work done on it so far has improved its looks wonderfully. Mr. Ryckman is getting out plans for a bandstand and it looks as though the residents of Didsbury will have a little beauty spot in time.

Good Prices

L. J. Wigglesworth of east Didsbury sold 53 head of gram fed steers on Monday last to N. Weicker which averaged him $73.50 a head or a total of $3,895.50.

Earl Rothman, twelve miles west of town, also brought in four load of hogs, on the same date, to Mr. Jones, which netted him $815.

 "Is that a garden you are making?"

The Sad One.

The "Prodigal Son" was the subject of the Sunday school lesson. The teacher was dwelling on the character of the elder brother.
 "But amidst all the rejoicing," said the teacher, "there was one to whom the preparation of the feast brought no joy, to whom the prodigal's return brought no happiness, only bitterness; one who did not approve of the feast and had no wish to attend it. Now who can tell me who this was?"
 Silence for several moments, then a hand raised and a small sympathetic voice: "Please; ma'am, it was the fatted calf."

COMES FROM NOVA SCOTIA THIS TIME

ANOTHER SPLENDID CURE BY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

R. Moulaison, whom two doctors treated, finds relief and permanent cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Surtee Island, Yarmouth Co., N.S. (Special)—Mr. Henie Moulaison a well known resident here, is telling his neighbors of his cure from a severe attack of Kidney Disease which kept him in a state of pain and suspense for two months and defied the efforts of two doctors who were treating him. "My trouble started with a cold," Mr. Moulaison says. "My muscles would cramp and I had backache and dizzy spells. My head ached and I had a tired, nervous feeling while specks of light flashed in front of my eyes."

"I suffered in this way for over two months and was treated by two doctors but they didn't seem to be able to do much for me. Then I started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills and they helped me almost at once. Six boxes cured me."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure the kidneys. Cured kidneys strain all the impurities out of the blood. That makes pure blood and good health.

The clergyman had come round to the Sunday school, and was examining the small boys.

"Can any of you tell me?" said he, "what is the meaning of 'divers diseases'?"

Two small boys began comparing mental notes in an undertone. Presently one of them looked up.

"Please, sir, it's water on the brain."

In the causes of infant mortality cholera morbus figures frequently, and it may be said that complaints of the bowels are great destroyers of child life. If all mothers would avail themselves of so effective a remedy as Dr. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial many a little one could be saved. This cordial can be given with safety to the smallest child, as there is no injurious substance in it.

Lucan Nagy of Szegedin, Austria, sold his skin to a foreign museum a long time ago for £32, the condition being that after his death and when the skin was removed the museum authorities should bury his body. He has now died at the age of 85. On his deathbed he begged his relatives to get his contract broken.

It Will Prevent Ulcerated Throat—At the first symptoms of sore throat, which presages ulceration and inflammation, take a spoonful of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Add a little sugar to it to make it palatable. It will allay the irritation and prevent the ulceration and swelling that are so painful. Those who were periodically subject to quinsy have thus made themselves immune to attack.

Curious to Learn.
 In Georgia they tell of a prisoner who had been convicted a dozen times of stealing, who, when placed at the bar for his latest offense, displayed a singular curiosity.

"Your Honor," said he, "I should like to have my case postponed for a week. My lawyer is sick."

"But," said the magistrate, "you were caught with your hand in this gentleman's pocket. What can your counsel say in your defence?"

"Exactly so. Your honor, that is what I am curious to know."—Green Bag.

Minard's Liniment used by Physicians.

Taking Every Precaution.

Mr. Lansbury's concern, as expressed in the British House of Commons, over the military drilling going on in the North of Ireland, reminds one of a story of how Ireland was occasionally taught to shoot in the past. The war office once sent a famous officer over to inspect the militia regiments, and the officer, after inspecting, asked for a few words with the drill sergeant.

"These men of yours," he said, "could not hit a target as big as the Tower of London. You can't have taken much pains to teach them."

"Teach them to shoot," gasped the sergeant. "Of course I did not teach them to shoot, yer honor; for, bedad, if I did there wouldn't be a landlord left in Munster."

The Slayer of Miaco.

One of the most peculiar cases ever brought to the attention of the court of first instance recently came to light in Pangasinan province.

Pedro Rabalra, with two others, was accused of the murder of Bernabe Laco, and on being brought to trial the first pleaded guilty, there being an aggravating circumstance of treachery, and was sentenced to twenty years in Bilbid.

Now it comes to light that the deceased was Miaco, an outlaw, who deserted from the constabulary some time ago, taking with him various arms and accoutrements, and who engaged in outlawry since that time. There was a reward of 500 pesos out for his capture, dead or alive.

The question now is, should the prisoner serve his term for killing a fellow citizen, or should he be liberated and given a reward for killing an enemy to society?—Manila Weekly Times.

Eat What You Like

And What Agrees With You, But Do Not Eat Too Much.

Digestion Will Be Good If You Regulate the System With

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

Overeating is the great cause of liver troubles, biliousness and constipation. The digestive system becomes clogged with poisonous waste matter, the liver fails and then follow kidney disorders of the most painful form, such as rheumatism, Bright's disease and dropsy.

The beginning is almost invariably with the liver and should be overcome by the prompt use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills before serious disease is developed.

An occasional dose of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills when the liver gets sluggish and the bowels constipated will keep the whole digestive system in healthy working order.

Hundreds of thousands of people have found this out by their own experience and would not think of being without this medicine in the house. Others have been restored to health by this treatment after their cases had reached more serious and complicated stages.

There does not seem to be any medicine obtainable which is so successful in awakening the action of both liver and kidneys as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Merit alone can account for their enormous sales.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box (at all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto).

A coin of the Constantine period has been unearthed by workmen in a garden at Colchester.

MIXED FARMING—THE FARMING THAT PAYS

The writer, years ago, when conversing with Mr. S. A. Bedford, late superintendent of the Brandon Experimental Farm, was told by that gentleman that he had known of many farmers who had failed as wheat growers, but he had never known of one farmer to fail who honestly practiced mixed farming. Mr. Bedford spoke the truth. Never was there a sterner lesson given than the western farmers have gotten this year. They staked their all on one crop—wheat and other grain—and that crop though large was not a success. The result, as we all know, has been losses by bad harvest weather causing damp and wet grain, losses caused by the farmers flooding the market through making a mad rush to sell it. The results we also see: notes overdue at the banks, storekeepers' accounts unsettled, machinery unpaid for, wholesale and manufacturing firms dunning for the money due them by the western farmers.

To use a trite saying, "our farmers put all their eggs in one basket, the basket fell, the eggs were smashed, and all that were left was the fragments to pay for a year's work. How different would it have been had the farmers had the revenue from their dairy cattle and their hogs to fall back upon. He would then have been able to pay his way, and be able to bear the loss on one item of his income, so long as others were profitable. There is no room for disputing the fact that what is known as "mixed farming" is good farming, safe farming and profitable farming.

Look abroad and see how the farmers who pay a yearly rent of from $5 to $15 an acre make farming pay. It is not by confining themselves to growing crops of grain. That is their smallest source of revenue. The making of butter and cheese; the raising and fattening of hogs, sheep and cattle for the butcher; the breeding of horses; the growing of roots and vegetables for market, all contribute to the British farmers' bank account and enable him to pay high rents to his landlord. Here, in this northwestern Canada, the land is fertile. The farmers have no rents to pay. But when bad seasons come, as come they will, the single crop on which the farmers wholly depend, is a failure, and the majority of them are brought to the brink of ruin. Diversified farming would remedy all this.

Now, we will give a brief glance at Ontario, and see what mixed farming has done for that province. Fifty years ago, grain growing had resulted in impoverishing the land to such an extent that in large districts it would not grow anything to yield a profit. The dairy industry has worked wonders in improving these conditions. For instance, look at the county of Oxford. The land is now fertile and will grow anything. Good large brick barns, comfortable and large brick and stone homes have replaced the ramshackle, dilapidated log buildings, and there is an air of comfort and prosperity on every farm. At Woodstock and Ingersoll, markets are held every week at which are to be seen cheese buyers from all parts of the province, and even from Britain. The quality of the cheese is equal to any in the world and commands the highest prices. In other parts of that province the result has been equally satisfactory.

The factory system prevails, mostly in Ontario, but there are a great many private dairies which are very profitable, though the farms are small, few of them exceeding one hundred acres. For example, the writer knows of farms of that size where twenty to twenty-five milk cows are kept and the milk is made into cheese and butter and sold in the local markets. The dairies are operated on the most improved principles, a member of the family thoroughly learning the business in one of the many nearby cheese factories. All these farms give a good profit to their owners. Their handsome horses and the well-dressed and good-looking sons and daughters of the house, as they go to church on Sundays in their double-seated buggies, bear unmistakable testimony to the success of mixed farming.

Are the Fly and Mosquito Dangerous?

The fly, with spongy feet, collects the invisible germs of diseases, spreads them over our food and poisons us with typhoid and cholera. The mosquito with its bite injects into our veins malaria and yellow fever. The bacteria of consumption, or grip, are everywhere present for us to breathe into our lungs. The blood which flows through our veins and arteries is our protection. It should contain healthy red and white blood corpuscles—capable of warding off these disease germs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood medicine and alternative made entirely without alcohol, a pure glyceric extract of bloodroot, golden seal, Oregon grape root, Queen's root, mandrake and stone root, which has enjoyed a good reputation for over forty years. The refreshing influence of this extract is like Nature's influence—the blood is bathed in the tonic which gives life to the blood—the vital fires of the body burn brighter and their increased activity consumes the tissue rubbish which has accumulated during the winter.

"About forty years ago while in Newark, New Jersey, I had chills and fever," writes Mr. MICHAEL MAQUIER, of National Military Home, Kansas. "I went to Kansas City and in the spring of 1877 the chills and fever returned. Doctors and everything I tried failed to do me good. Finally I saw Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery advertised. I took one bottle of it and the chills vanished. In about a year afterward I felt them coming back so I got another bottle and have never had any symptoms of fever or ague since. That is all of twenty years ago, for I had the chills about twelve years before I started to take 'Golden Medical Discovery'."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for liver ills.

Come to Didsbury Friday

All preparations for a big day in Didsbury on Friday, Empire Day, May 24th, are well under way and if the weather only stays good we will have another one of those fine celebrations for which Didsbury is noted from Halifax to Vancouver.

The horse races, for which good purses are being offered, will be good, as it is expected that some noted race horses of Canada will be present, including some from the well known Baptist and Douglas racing studs besides some dark and light horses from town.

The other events will all likely be well filled, but the ones that will draw the most attention are the football match and climbing the greasy pole.

The football match between Didsbury and Red Deer should be good, as both teams have been practicing hard for a long time.

Climbing the greasy pole is something new in these parts, although in the old country and in some parts of eastern Canada it has held sway with catching the greasy pig for some centuries.

The band will play. Oh, yes, the celebration would not be complete without them. They are going to nearly blow their heads off for you that day so come in and hear them. Joking aside, the band has been working hard for this event and you will be surprised at the progress that they have made if you stay at home in Didsbury and hear them. And you also want to remember that this celebration is gotten up by the Overseas Club and the Citizens Band for the benefit of the band as well as to celebrate the day that is being celebrated all over the greatest empire the world has ever seen. Oh yes, come to Didsbury on Friday.
